TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY CONCERN:

J. R. G. Coleman

SEND GREETING:

WHEREAS, I, the said J. R. G. Coleman in and by my certain promissory note..... in writing, of even date with these presents, due well and truly indebted to J. L. Roberson
in the full and just sum of Eight hundred, twenty five + 20/100 ($825.00) Dollars, to be paid $216.00 on December 1st. 1920 and the remainder $625.00 on June 1st. 1921.

with interest thereon from date at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum to be computed and paid annually until paid in full; all interest not paid when due to bear interest at the same rate as principal; and if any portion of principal or interest be at any time past due and unpaid, then the whole amount evidenced by said note..... to become immediately due, at the option of the holder hereof, who may sue thereon and foreclose this mortgage, said note further providing for an attorney's fee of ten percent

.....besides all costs and expenses of collection, to be added to the amount due on said note....., to be collectible as a part thereof, if the same be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or if said debt, or any part thereof, be collected by an attorney, or by legal proceedings of any kind (all of which is secured under this mortgage); as in and by the said note....., reference being thereunto had, as will more fully appear.

NOW, KNOW ALL MEN, That I, J. R. G. Coleman, #8491 in consideration of the said debt and sum of money aforesaid and for the better securing the payment thereof to the said according to the terms of the said note....., and in consideration of the further sum of Three Dollars, to me, the said J. L. G. Coleman

.....in hand well and truly paid by the said J. L. Roberson at and before the signing of these Presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these Presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said J. L. Roberson
