TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY CONCERN:

John A. Russell

SEND GREETING:

WHEREAS, I, John A. Russell, the said in and by my certain promissory note in writing, of even date with these presents, am well and truly indebted to F.G. Mauldin in the full and just sum of Seventeen hundred ($1700.00) Dollars, payable in three annual equal ~~Dollars to be paid~~ installments on the 17th day of August, in the years 1926, 1927 and 1928 should at any time any part of the principal or interest of the first note and mortgage become past due and un-paid, then this note and mortgage is to become immediately due and payable at the option of the holder with interest thereon, from Date at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum to be computed and paid annually until paid in full; all interest not paid when due to bear interest at the same rate as principal; and if any portion of principal or interest be at any time past due and unpaid, then the whole amount evidenced by said note to become immediately due, at the option of the holder hereof, who may sue thereon and foreclose this mortgage, said note further providing for an attorney's fee of ten per cent besides all costs and expenses of collection, to be added to the amount due on said note, to be collectible as a part thereof, if the same be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or if said debt, or any part thereof, be collected by an attorney or by legal proceedings of any kind (all of which is secured under this mortgage); as in and by the said note, reference being thereunto had, as will more fully appear

NOW, KNOW ALL MEN, That I, John A. Russell, the said in consideration of the said debt and sum of money aforesaid, and for the better securing the payment thereof to the said F.G. Mauldin according to the terms of the said note, and also in consideration of the further sum of Three Dollars, to me, the said John A. Russell in hand well and truly paid by the said F.G. Mauldin
