

so insured during the life of this mortgage, and to assign the policy or policies of insurance to the said mortgagor; and in event the mortgagor shall at any time fail to do so, the said mortgagee may cause the same to be insured in its name and reimburse itself for the premium and expense of such insurance under this mortgage, with interest.

And if at any time any part of said debt, or interest thereon, be past due and unpaid, said corporation does hereby assign the rents and profits of the above described premises to the said mortgagee or its successors, and agree that any judge of the Circuit Court of said State may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver, with authority to take possession of said premises and collect said rents and profits, applying the net proceeds thereafter (after paying costs of collection) upon said debt, interest, costs or expenses; without liability to account for anything more than the rents and profits actually collected.

Provided always, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these presents, that if the said mortgagor does and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the debt or sum of money aforesaid with interest thereon, if any is due, according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, then this deed of bargain and sale shall cease, determine, and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

And it is agreed by and between the said parties that said mortgagor is to hold and enjoy the said premises until default of payment shall be made.

In Witness Whereof the granting corporation has caused its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and these presents to be subscribed by its duly authorized officers, John J. Woodside, as President, and R. D. Woodside as Secretary, on this the Twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and Twenty-nine and in the one hundred and fifty-third year of the Sovereignty and independence of the United States of America.
