

the Lenhardt Electric Power Plant and extending from said Power Plant to the Town of Norris and to Wesleyan College, and also all poles, cross-arms, wires, meters, and electrical stock etc. on hand, and also all rights of way and franchises used, or held for use, in connection with said system; and including all structures, poles, wires, cross-arms, insulators, fasteners, equipment, apparatus, appliances, fixtures and material constituting, or in any wise connected with said transmission, distribution and lighting system, and all rights, privileges, easements, licenses and immunities of the Company incident to the construction, operation and maintenance of said system, and all personal property of every nature and description used, or held for use, in connection with same.

Including all the property conveyed to the Company by deed of J. Warren Smith, dated December 10, 1928, duly recorded in public Registry of Pickens County, South Carolina, in Deed Book VVV, Page 205.

PARCEL NO. 65.

The Electric Distribution System at and near the Town of Chesnee, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, described as follows:

All that certain electric lighting and power transmission and distribution system formerly of the said Town of Chesnee, including all poles, wires, cross arms, insulators, supports, fastenings, transformers, meters, lamps, globes, shades, brackets, and all equipment, apparatus, appliances, fixtures, materials and supplies connected therewith, or incident thereto, situated and located within and near the said Town of Chesnee, in the County of Spartanburg, State of South Carolina. Also all rights, privileges, easements, licenses and immunities of the Company incident to the construction, operation and maintenance of said electric lighting and power transmission and distribution system, or in any way connected therewith.

Including all the property conveyed to the Company by Deed of Town of Chesnee, dated October 30, 1928, duly recorded in public Registry of Spartanburg County, South Carolina, in Deed Book 7-T, Page 79.

PARCEL NO. 66.

The Electric Distribution System in and near the Town of Blacksburg, in Cherokee County, South Carolina, described as follows:

All that certain electric lighting, power transmission and distribution system formerly of the said Town of Blacksburg, including all poles, towers, wires, cross-arms, insulators, supports, fastenings, transformers, meters, lamps, globes, shades, brackets and all equipment, apparatus, appliances, fixtures, materials, supplies and all property of every nature and description in any wise connected therewith, or incident thereto, situated and located within and near the said Town of Blacksburg in the County of Cherokee, States of South Carolina; also all rights, privileges, easements, licenses and immunities of the Company incident to the construction, operation and maintenance of said electric lighting, power transmission and distribution system, or in any way connected therewith.

Including all property conveyed to the Company by deed of Town of Blacksburg, dated March 30, 1929, duly recorded in public Registry of Cherokee County, South Carolina, in Vol 2-F, Page 619.

PARCEL NO. 67.

The Electric Distribution System at and near the Town of Walhalla, in Oconee County, South Carolina, described as follows:

All that certain electric lighting and power transmission and distribution system and substation formerly of the said Town of Walhalla, including all poles, wires, cross-arms, insulators, supports, fastenings, transformers, meters, lamps, globes, shades, brackets, and all equipment, apparatus, appliances, fixtures, materials, and supplies connected therewith, or incident thereto, situated and located within and near the said Town of Walhalla, in the County of Oconee, State of South Carolina. Also all rights, privileges, easements, licenses and immunities of the Company incident to the construction, operation and maintenance of said electric lighting and power transmission and distribution system and substation, or in any way connected therewith.

Including all property conveyed to the Company by Deed of Town of Walhalla, dated April 27, 1928, duly recorded in public Registry of Oconee County, South Carolina, in Vol. 4-A, Page 11.

PARCEL NO. 68.

The Electric Transmission and Distribution System at and near the Town of Hickory Grove, in York County, South Carolina, described as follows:

The electric transmission, distribution and lighting system formerly of the said Town of Hickory Grove, including the substation in the Town of Hickory Grove, located upon the lot heretofore conveyed to the Company by deed of C. M. Whisonant, duly recorded in Book T of Deeds at page 56, in the office of the R. M. C. for York County, including all property located upon said lot. Also, including all that certain electric distribution and street lighting system formerly belonging to said Town, located in and about said Town of Hickory Grove, together with the right of way in and upon the streets of said Town necessary for the proper operation and maintenance of said distribution and street lighting system, and also including that certain electric transmission line extending from the transmission system of the Company at or near the Town of Sharon, S. C. to said substation in the Town of Hickory Grove; and including all structures, poles, wires, crossarms, insulators, fasteners, equipment, apparatus, appliances, fixtures and material constituting or in anywise connected with said substation, distribution and lighting system and transmission system; and all rights, privileges, easements, licenses and immunities of the Company incident to the construction, operation and maintenance of said substation, distribution and lighting system and transmission system.

Including all property conveyed to the Company by Deed of Town of Hickory Grove, dated November 9, 1927, duly recorded in the Public Registry of York County, South Carolina, in Deed Book 65, Page 288.

PARCEL NO. 69.

The Electric Distribution System in and near the Town of Pendleton, in Anderson County, South Carolina, described as follows:

All of the items of personal property owned and used by the Company in the conduct of its electric light business at Pendleton, in the County of Anderson and State aforesaid, including a transmission system comprising a three wire pole line running from Pendleton to Sandy Springs by way of Autun, a distribution system in Pendleton and Sandy Springs, including meters, transformers, street lighting system at Pendleton, street lighting transformer, switches, switch board, wires, cross-arms, insulators and all other fixtures and equipment of every kind whatsoever used as a part of said distribution system; also all supplies on hand and tools, including Ford automobile, used in connection with said electric transmission and distributing systems; also all franchise rights including the contract executed between the Town Council of Pendleton and E. N. Sitton and Cema Sitton Chreitzberg, the performance of the obligations of which were heretofore assumed by Pendleton Electric Light Company, and the contract entered into between Riverside Manufacturing Company and Pendleton Electric Light Company; also all rights accruing to the Company under a contract now in force between the Company and Southern Power Company.

Also all rights of way and easements owned and used by the Company for the purpose of conveying electric current by any and all of its electric lines.

Including all property conveyed to the Company by Pendleton Electric Light Company, by Deed dated June 4, 1927, duly recorded in Public Registry of Anderson County, South Carolina, in Deed Book Z 5, Page 714.

PARCEL NO. 70.

The Electric Distribution System at and near the Town of Sharon, in York County, South Carolina, and also the two lots of land at or near said Town, described as follows:

All that certain substation or switching station formerly of the Town of Sharon, located in the Town of York, in the County of York, State of South Carolina, and all that certain substation formerly of the Town of Sharon located in the Town of Sharon in said County and State, including all structures, apparatus, appliances, equipment, transformers, switches, fixtures and material connected therewith, formerly owned by the Town of Sharon; also all those certain electric distribution and street lighting systems in and about the said Town of Sharon, including all structures, poles, wires, cross-arms, insulators, supports, fastenings, equipment, apparatus, appliances, meters, fixtures and ma-