Assignment.

To
J. L. Pace

In consideration of $10.00 and other valuable considerations to us in hand paid this 30th day of January, 1933 we Mrs Frances Mahaffey and Mrs Joe Lee B. Mahaffey, hereby transfer, set over, and assign note of R. B. Still to Leroy Mahaffey to J. L. Pace said note assigned to us by J. F. Gallivan and real estate mortgage securing same, as well as in the decree of foreclosure in the case of Pace vs Still et al, involving said note and mortgage, without recourse against us or either of us; the mortgage referred to covers 10 acres of land, more or less, on Summit Drive, and is described in record thereof in Real Estate Mortgage Book no 139 at page 89. (Record of assignment to said Gallivan being found in Vol 64 at page 122)

The assignee accepts same without recourse or claim of liability against either of the assignors or against Leroy Mahaffey, who is freed of any further claim against him by the said Pace.

Witness our hands and seals this January 30th, 1933.
