SEND GREETING:

WHEREAS, I, the said L. B. Sims, in and by MY certain promissory note in writing, of even date with these Presents am well and truly indebted to the LIBERTY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, a corporation chartered under the laws of the State of South Carolina, in the full and just sum of Seventy-five Hundred & no/100 ($ 7,500.00 ) DOLLARS, to be paid at its Home Office in Greenville, S. C., together with interest thereon from date hereof until maturity at the rate of four and one-half (4 1/2 %) per centum per annum, said principal and interest being payable in monthly instalments as follows: Beginning on the 31st day of January, 19 50, and on the last day of each month of each year thereafter the sum of $ 77.78 to be applied on the interest and principal of said note, said payments to continue up to and including the last day of November, 19 59, and the balance of said principal and interest to be due and payable on the last day of December, 19 59; the aforesaid monthly payments of $ 77.78 each are to be applied first to interest at the rate of four and one-half (4 1/2 %) per centum per annum on the principal sum of $ 7,500.00 or so much thereof as shall, from time to time, remain unpaid and the balance of each monthly payment shall be applied on account of principal.

And if at any time any portion of principal or interest shall be past due and unpaid, or if default be made in respect to any condition, agreement or covenant contained herein, then the whole sum of the principal of said note remaining at that time unpaid together with the accrued interest, shall become immediately due and payable, at the option of the holder thereof, who may sue thereon and foreclose this mortgage; and if said note, after its maturity, should be placed in the hands of an attorney for suit or collection, or if, before its maturity, it should be deemed by the holder thereof necessary for the protection of its interests to place, and the holder should place, the said note or this mortgage in the hands of an attorney for any legal proceedings; then and in either of such cases the mortgagor promises to pay all costs and expenses including a reasonable attorney's fee, these to be added to the mortgage indebtedness, and to be secured under this mortgage as a part of said debt.
