

And the said mortgagee shall not be bound to insure the same for less than Eight Thousand ($8,000) Dollars... satisfactory to the mortgagee... and assign and deliver the policies of insurance to the mortgagee...

AND should the Mortgagee, by reason of fire or tornado as aforesaid, receive any sum or sums of money for any damage by fire or tornado... such amount may be retained and applied by it toward payment of the amount...

Mortgagor(s), his successors, heirs or assigns, to enable such parties to repair said buildings or to erect new buildings in their place, or for any other purpose or object... without affecting the lien of this mortgage for the full amount secured thereby...

In case of default in the payment of any part of the principal indebtedness, or of any part of the interest, at the time the same becomes due, or in the case of failure to keep insured for the benefit of the mortgagee(s) the houses and buildings on the premises against fire and other casualty, as herein provided, or in case of failure to pay any taxes or assessments to become due on said property within the time required by law, in either of said cases the mortgagee(s) shall be entitled to declare the entire debt due and to institute foreclosure proceedings.

And it is further covenanted and agreed that in the event of the passage, after the date of this mortgage, of any law of the State of South Carolina deducting from the value of land, for the purpose of taxing any lien thereon, or changing in any way the laws now in force for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by mortgage for State or local purposes, or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, so as to affect this mortgage, the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon, shall, at the option of the said Mortgagee(s), without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.

And in case proceedings for foreclosure shall be instituted, the mortgagor(s) agree(s) to and does hereby assign the rents and profits arising or to arise from the mortgaged premises as additional security for this loan, and agree(s) that any Judge of jurisdiction may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the premises, and collect the rents and profits and apply the net proceeds (after paying costs of receivership) upon said debt, interests, costs and expenses, without liability to account for anything more than the rents and profits actually received.

PROVIDED, ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these Presents, that if

I, the said mortgagor(s), do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee(s) the debt or sum of money aforesaid with interest thereon, if any be due according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, and any and all other sums which may become due and payable hereunder, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED by and between the said parties that said mortgagor(s) shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the said Premises until default shall be made as herein provided.

The covenants herein contained shall bind, and the benefits and advantages shall inure to, the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of the parties hereto. Whenever used, the singular number shall include the plural, the plural the singular, the use of any gender shall be applicable to all genders, and the term "Mortgagee" shall include any payee of the indebtedness hereby secured or any transferee thereof whether by operation of law or otherwise.
