OLLIE FARNSWORTH

To All Whom These Presents May Concern:

I, WILLIAM J. BRYSON

SEND GREETING:

Whereas, I, the said William J. Bryson in and by my certain promissory note in writing, of even date with these Presents, am well and truly indebted to Joseph R. Bryson, M. D. in the full and just sum of Three Thousand and No/100ths ($3,000.00) Dollars to be paid three (3) years from date with interest thereon from date at the rate of 4 per centum per annum, to be computed and paid at maturity until paid in full; all interest not paid when due to bear interest at same rate as principal; and if any portion of principal or interest be at any time past due and unpaid, the whole amount evidenced by said note to become immediately due, at the option of the holder hereof, who may sue thereon and foreclose this mortgage; and in case said note, after its maturity, should be placed in the hands of an attorney for suit or collection, or if before its maturity it should be deemed by the holder thereof necessary for the protection of his interests to place and the holder should place the said note or this mortgage in the hands of an attorney for any legal proceedings, then and in either of said cases the mortgagor promises to pay all costs and expenses including 10 per cent. of the indebtedness as attorneys' fees, this to be added to the mortgage indebtedness, and to be secured under this mortgage as a part of said debt.

NOW KNOW ALL MEN, that I, the said William J. Bryson

, in consideration of the said debt and sum of money aforesaid, and for the better securing the payment thereof to the said Joseph R. Bryson, M. D.

according to the terms of the said note, and also in consideration of the further sum of Three Dollars, to me, the said William J. Bryson , in hand well and truly paid by the said Joseph R. Bryson, M. D.

at and before the signing of these Presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these Presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said Joseph R. Bryson, M. D., his heirs and assigns, forever:
