To All Whom These Presents May Concern:

We, the said, John Lee and Lillian Duncan - - - - - SEND GREETINGS:
Whereas, we the said John Lee and Lillian W. Duncan in and by OUR certain promissory note in writing, of even date with these presents, am (are) well and truly indebted to Marion Harris
in the full and just sum of Seven Hundred Nineteen and 28/100 - - - - - Dollars, ($719.28) payable at the rate of $29.97 per month - - - - -

, with interest thereon from maturity at the rate of seven per cent, per annum, to be computed and paid semi-annually until paid in full; all interest not paid when due to bear interest at same rate as principal; and if any portion of principal or interest be at any time past due and unpaid, then the whole amount evidenced by said note to become immediately due, at the option of the holder thereof, who may sue thereon and foreclose this mortgage; said note further providing for an attorney's fee of ten per cent, besides all costs and expenses of collection, to be added to the amount due on said note and to be collectible as a part thereof, if the same be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or if said debt, or any part thereof, be collected by an attorney, or by legal proceedings of any kind (all of which is secured under this mortgage); as in and by the said note, reference being thereunto had, will more fully appear.

NOW, KNOW ALL MEN, That we, the said John Lee and Lillian W. Duncan, in consideration of the said debt and sum of money aforesaid, and for the better securing the payment thereof to the said Marion Harris according to the terms of the said note, and also in consideration of the further sum of Three Dollars, to us, the said John Lee and Lillian W. Duncan, in hand and truly paid by the said Marion Harris at and before the signing of these Presents, the receipts whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these Presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said Marion Harris, his heirs and assigns; FOREVER:
