

The mortgagor further bargains, sells and releases unto the mortgagees all of the furniture, fixtures, furnishings, appliances and equipment now located on the above described premises ^{or} that may replace such described chattels now on the premises.