In addition to and together with the monthly payments of principal and interest under the terms of the note secured hereby, the mortgagor promises to pay to the mortgagee a monthly premium necessary to carry private mortgage guaranty insurance until the principal balance reaches 80 per cent of the original sales price or appraisal, whichever is less. The estimated monthly premium for the first nine years will be .02 per cent of the original amount of the loan. The estimated monthly premium for each year thereafter will be .01 per cent of the original principal balance of this loan. The mortgagee may advance this premium and collect it as part of the debt secured by the mortgage if mortgagor fails to pay it. Together with all and singular the rights, members, hereditaments, and appurtenances to the same belonging or in any way incident or appertaining, and all of the rents, issues, and profits which may arise or be had therefrom, and including all heating, plumbing, and lighting fixtures and any other equipment or fixtures now or hereafter attached, connected, or fitted thereto in any manner; it being the intention of the parties hereto that all such fixtures and equipment, other than the usual household furniture, be considered a part of the real estate.
