

may be given or presented, and such demand may be made, at the Corporate Trust Department. Any notice to or request or demand upon the Company shall be deemed to have been given or served for all purposes by being sent registered mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the Company at its address set forth in the first paragraph of this Indenture or at such other address as may be filed in writing by the Company with the Trustee. Whenever, pursuant to the provisions of this indenture, notice is required to be given or sent to the registered owners of the Notes, such requirement shall be satisfied if such notice be given or sent, in the manner prescribed, to the registered owners of the Notes, at the respective addresses appearing on the Register.

Section 11.7. Waiver of Notice. Whenever in this Indenture the giving of notice is required, the giving thereof may be waived in writing by the person or persons entitled to receive such notice.

Section 11.8. Maximum Interest Payable. No provision of this Indenture or of the Notes shall require the payment or permit the collection of interest in excess of the maximum not prohibited by law. If any excess of interest in such respect is herein or in the Notes provided for, or shall be adjudicated to be so provided for herein or in the Notes, neither the Company nor its successors or assigns shall be obligated to pay such interest in excess of the maximum amount not prohibited by law, and the right to
