The Maccabees believed that they had a divine mission to restore the true religion and to re-establish the old law. They were the first to call themselves "Judeans" and they founded the Maccabean kingdom, which was ruled by the Maccabees' family.

Q 16. After the exchange of notes the Members of the Committee were asked to indicate their views on the M. Project. The following statement was made by Mr. G. H. D. Smith, a member of the Committee:

2. The first step is to identify the specific needs of the organization. This involves understanding the mission, vision, and values of the organization, as well as its current strengths and weaknesses. It also requires identifying the specific challenges and opportunities that the organization faces.
