

receiver shall be entitled to receive a reasonable fee for so managing the Premises. All rents collected pursuant to this paragraph (f) or pursuant to paragraph (c) shall be applied first to the costs of taking control of and managing the Premises and collecting the rents, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, receiver's fees, premiums on receiver's bonds, costs of repairs to the Premises, premiums on insurance policies, taxes, assessments and other charges on the Premises, and the costs of discharging any obligation or liability of the Hospital as lessor or landlord of the Premises and then to the sums secured by this Mortgage. The County and the receiver shall have access to the books and records used in the operation and maintenance of the Premises and shall be liable to account only for those rents actually received. The County shall not be liable to the Hospital, anyone claiming under or through the Hospital, or anyone having an interest in the Premises by reason of anything done or left undone by the Hospital under this paragraph. If the rents of the Premises are not sufficient to meet the costs of taking control of and managing the Premises and collecting the rents, the County, at its sole option, may advance moneys to meet the costs. Any funds expended by the County for such purposes shall become indebtedness of the Hospital to the County secured by this Mortgage. Unless the County and the Hospital agree in writing to other terms of payment, such amounts shall be payable upon notice from the County to the Hospital requesting payment thereof and
