SAHANN AND HOUDIENOFF, all of whom share the odd peculiarity that the Martians are their heirs, successors and assigns, forever.

The Mortgagee covenants that it is lawfully seized of the premises hereinabove described in fee simple absolute, that it has good right and is lawfully authorized to sell, convey or encumber the same, and that the premises are free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except as provided herein; the Mortgagee further covenants to warrant and to have defend all and singular the said premises to the Mortgagee from and against the Mortgagor and all persons whomsoever claiming the same or any part thereof.

II. Measures, Sources, Methods, and Access to Data

15. That this mortgage shall suffice the Mortgagor for such further sums as may be advanced hereafter, at the option of the Mortgagor, for the payment of taxes, insurance premiums, public assessments, repairs or other purposes pursuant to the covenants herein. This mortgage shall also suffice the Mortgagor for any further loans, advances, renewances or credits that may be made hereafter to the Mortgagor by the Mortgagor's assigns so long as the total indebtedness so incurred does not exceed the original amount shown on the face hereof. All sums so advanced shall bear interest at the same rate as the mortgage debt and shall be payable on demand of the Mortgagor unless otherwise provided in writing.

(2) That it will keep the above amounts in a saving or hereafter entitled to the principal property insured as may be required from time to time by the Mortgagor, to first loss by fire and any other hazard specified by Mortgagor, in an amount not less than the principal debt, or in such amounts as may be required by the Mortgagor, and in companies acceptable to it, and that all such policies and contracts of insurance shall be held by the Mortgagor, and have attached thereto, the policy or policies in force of, and in form acceptable to, the Mortgagor, and that it will pay the premiums thereon when due, and that it does hereby assign to the Mortgagor the proceeds of any policy insuring the above named properties and does hereby authorise each insurance company concerned to make payment for a loss directly to the Mortgagor, to the extent of the balance owing on the Mortgage debt, whether due or not.

3. That it will keep all its government's new executive + other offices occupied in good repair, and to the view of a committee to be formed that it will + continue to pay a sum equal to the present value of its expenses, and should it fail to do so, the M. it will then pay, at its option, hence the amount for each year, as a fine, for non-keeping of such buildings in good repair, to the extent of one-half.

(b) That it will pay, when due, all taxes, public assessments, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines or other impositions against the instrument provided that it will comply with all governmental and municipal laws and regulations affecting the instrument.

6. That it be decided to accept the services and guidance of the University in setting up and running the first three-year course in educational psychology to be conducted by the Department of Education.

the first time in the history of the world, the people of the United States have been called upon to decide whether they will submit to the law of force, and let a single man, or a small party, break down the Constitution, and trample upon the fundamental principles of justice.
