

Unmatured Event of Default or (B) such sale or disposition has been expressly approved in writing by the Required Lenders; provided that such liens and security interests shall not in the case of Plant Assets or, if the sales price thereof in any sale or other disposition or series of related sales or other dispositions shall exceed $100,000, any other Fixed Assets be deemed released until the Trustee has delivered a written release pursuant to the terms of Section 6.2(b).

(b) In the event the Company sells, leases or otherwise disposes of any Fixed Assets the Company shall, promptly after such sale, lease or disposition, notify each Holder as to the Collateral sold, leased or disposed of, the consideration received and the application of such consideration received.

6.2 Releases When No Period of Actionable Default is in Effect.

(a) Sales or other dispositions of Collateral (other than Plant Assets or, if the sales price thereof in any sale or other disposition or series of related sales or other dispositions shall exceed $100,000, any other Fixed Assets) which are permitted by Section 6.1 shall not require any written or oral release or consent of the Trustees. Nevertheless, the Company may request that the Trustees (or the trustee, bailee or other Person acting on behalf of the Trustees) execute and
