

$4,200.00, plus any amount by which the stock sold exceeds the price paid by the Club for the repurchase of the share sold, to be applied toward principal reduction and not as a prepayment of any installment.

5. The parties hereto understand that said Country Club may approach members on its resale list, which list presently totals 118+ shares for resale, and may propose to those on this list that for a period of one year, stock may be repurchased at a reduced price for sale to specifically designated real estate developers who intend to offer said shares in connection with their developed properties, the purpose being to attempt to eliminate the resale list and also to replace members who are not active in the Club with members who will be active in the Club.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF THE undersigned have hereunto set their hands and seals this 31 day of December, 1980.
