

Agreement entered into between The Lewis Roofing Company, a corporation having the contract to salvage certain parts of Camp Sevier, S. C., to be known as party of the First part, and various property owners of the said Camp Sevier, S. C., to be known as party of the second part. The various parties concerned having agreed as follows: The property owners agree to accept as full compensation, for any and all damages that have occurred or may occur by reason of failure or neglect to fully comply with contract regarding sewer, the SUM OF TWENTY DOLLARS each for each man hole on the property of those concerned as shown, the same to be paid within ten days after the exact number of man holes are ascertained, it is understood that the Lewis Wrecking Company as operating at this camp is a trade name of the Lewis Roofing Company and the same parties are those who are operating the salvage operations at this Camp. Witness our hand and seal this January 19, 1920.
