Greenville Man Sentenced on Two Armed Robberies

Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor Walt Wilkins states that CHRISTOPHER BRADFORD HART, age 27, pled guilty on August 23, 2018, and was sentenced to 16 years in the South Carolina Department of Corrections by the Honorable Judge Donald Hocker.

Evidence presented at the plea hearing by the State established that on August 21, 2017, CHRISTOPHER BRADFORD HART entered the Corner Mart in Greenville and pointed a revolver at the clerk, demanding her to put money in a bag. She complied and Hart left with cash. On September 1, 2017, Hart entered a Kangaroo gas station store and ordered the clerk to open the cash register as he brandished a knife. He took cash and cigarettes and left the area in a vehicle. Based on a Crimestopper's tip and other investigation, Hart was arrested on Sept. 12, 2017. He admitted to detectives with Greenville Police Department and an investigator with the Greenville County Sheriff's Office that he committed these crimes, as well as other thefts in the area.
