Greenville Man Sentenced on Three Armed Robberies

Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor Walt Wilkins states that, on July 15, 2019, DALE EDWARD SHERIDAN, age 51 pled guilty, and was sentenced to 17 years in the South Carolina Department of Corrections by the Honorable Judge Edward Miller on three counts of Armed Robbery.

Evidence presented at the plea hearing by Assistant Solicitor Jennifer Tessitore established that on February 5, 2018, officers responded to the SunTrust Bank after SHERIDAN left a note with the teller saying he had a gun and wanted money. He left with $ 5,000 and fled the scene. On August 4, 2018, while presenting a handgun, SHERIDAN stole cash from a Citgo employee who relayed his tag number to police. Witnesses identified SHERIDAN as the gunman, and he left his fingerprints on a soda bottle at the Citgo. On the same day in Anderson County, SHERIDAN presented a handgun to a cashier at a QT and took cash from the store. SHERIDAN later confessed his crimes to Investigator Tracy King with the Greenville County Sheriff's Office.
