Greenville Man Sentenced on two counts Attempted Murder, Conspiracy, Possession of a Weapon during the Commission of a Violent Crime, and Discharging a Firearm into an Occupied Vehicle

Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor Walt Wilkins states that QUAVON DESHAY EDMUNDS, age 26, was convicted by a Greenville County jury of two counts of Attempted Murder, Conspiracy, Possession of a Weapon during the Commission of a Violent Crime, and Discharging a Firearm into an Occupied Vehicle and sentenced to twenty-five years in the South Carolina Department of Corrections by the Honorable Edward Miller.

Evidence presented at the trial by Assistant Solicitor Jenna Hendricks and Assistant Solicitor Meghan Gasser established that on February 7, 2018, QUAVON DESHAY EDMUNDS fired four shots into the occupied vehicle of two victims just before 2 PM in the afternoon at the intersection of Rutherford Road and North Main Street, striking one of the victims in the head. The defendant and the unknown driver then fled the scene. The shooting was captured on a school bus video which revealed the coordinated effort among at least seven individuals in four separate vehicles that surrounded the victim before shots were fired.
