

2-1993

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA )
 )
 COUNTY OF GREENVILLE )

IN THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

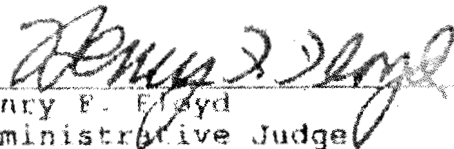

Codes of South Carolina 1976 as amended under Article 15 Section 24-13-1510 that established the Home Detention Act which permits the use of electronic monitoring devices for home detention of a person convicted or charged with an offense to be voluntarily confined to his/her place of residence.

This electronic monitoring program with Greenville County is to be known as Home Incarceration Program (HIP) and will be administered by the Director of the Greenville County Detention Center.

The following rules will apply unless otherwise ordered by a Circuit Judge"

1. The Director of the Greenville County Detention Center will select those pre-trial inmates that have been confined to secure incarceration and the criteria that is outlined in Section 24-13-1530 South Carolina Code of Laws as amended and those local guidelines established that will be eligible to participate as a condition of bond.
2. The Director of the Greenville County Detention Center will coordinate with the arresting agency before allowing pre-trial inmates to participate in the Home Incarceration Program.
3. The Director of the Greenville County Detention Center shall have the authority to have issued a rule to show cause order in the event a participant violates the condition of bond.
4. The Director of the Greenville County Detention Center may select those eligible sentenced convicts as participants to the Home Incarceration Program unless otherwise noted by a Circuit Judge.

Date April 5, 1993
 Greenville, S. C.

 Henry F. Floyd
 Administrative Judge
 Thirteenth Judicial Circuit