Over the past years, land fraud or real estate fraud has grown, significantly threatening many home and property buyers. In an effort to keep stakeholders in the Greenville community abreast of the latest information available, the Greenville County Register of Deeds is pleased to announce a free public seminar on land fraud.

We have secured a speaker through the Property Records Industry Association (PRIA) who will examine the subject of land fraud and the general state of the real estate industry. The seminar is scheduled for Wednesday, October 15, 2008 at County Square, County Council Chambers at 10:00 am.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Nanney
