Volunteer Experience (please list and describe):

During the time of 2011–2018, I served in many different roles with the PTA & SIC. My roles with PTA were Ways & Means Chair, Vice President and President. I also served for two years as the Chair/President of SIC. During my time as PTA President, I was able to raise and give the principal a check for $30,000. Also, during my time I created programs such as the Father Daughter Dance, Mother Son Event, Breakfast & Bow Ties, The Bear Den Closet, The Kindness Rock Garden, & Clothing Swap.

My interest in serving on the Planning Commission is:

My interest in serving on the Planning Commission stems from a genuine desire to contribute to the growth and development of our community. Having been actively involved in various leadership roles with the Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) and School Improvement Council (SIC) from 2011 – 2018, I have developed a strong passion for making meaningful contributions to the betterment of our local area.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

As I understand it, the position I am applying for on the Planning Commission involves serving as a vital member of a committee responsible for shaping the future development and growth of our community. The role entails reviewing and evaluating proposed projects, land use plans, and zoning ordinances to ensure they align with the overall vision and goals of the municipality.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Planning Commission:

My strengths and skills that would positively contribute to the Planning Commission include effective leadership, strategic planning abilities, strong community engagement skills, and analytical proficiency. With a background in various leadership roles within the Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) and School Improvement Council (SIC), I have demonstrated my capacity to lead diverse groups towards common goals.

My community topics of concern that relate to the Planning Commission are:

Community concerns pertinent to the Planning Commission include zoning regulations, traffic management, affordable housing, environmental sustainability and urban development. These issues encompass property values, transportation safety, housing accessibility, environmental health, and balanced growth. Collaborative efforts between the Planning Commission, city stakeholders, and residents are crucial in addressing these concerns effectively and ensuring the well-being of the community.
