

Proclamation

On a motion from Councilor Ennis Fant
Members of Greenville County Council wish to honor and acknowledge

Sunday Dinner With a Twist

Whereas, Sunday Dinner With A Twist has made an extraordinary impact on the lives of those experiencing homelessness in Greenville County, serving over 68,000 meals since its founding in 2018; offering essential items such as clothing, shoes, hygiene kits, snack bags, and transportation; and

Whereas, each weekend, the organization hands out nearly 250 meals, demonstrating a profound commitment to addressing hunger and hardship while fostering a sense of dignity and community; and

Whereas, the dedication of Sunday Dinner With a Twist is a shining example of how compassionate action can bring meaningful change and inspire collective efforts toward greater kindness and generosity; and

Whereas, recognizing and celebrating the spirit of giving is crucial in encouraging more individuals and organizations to contribute to the well-being of our community to humanize the homeless and to show love with no stipulations.

Now, therefore, Greenville County Council recognizes the inspiring work of Sunday Dinner With a Twist and hereby proclaims November 8 as the Day of Giving for Greenville County. This day shall honor and encourage acts of generosity, kindness, and community service, highlighting the invaluable contributions of organizations like Sunday Dinner With a Twist that make a difference in the lives of our neighbors.

Given this 15th day of October, 2024

Dan Tripp, Chairman
Greenville County Council
