

Proclamation

*On a motion from Councilor Curt McGahhey
Members of Greenville County Council hereby and recognize*

National Public Works Week

May 18 – May 24, 2025

“People, Purpose, Presence”

WHEREAS, public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities; and to the safety, high quality of life and well-being of the citizens of Greenville County; and

WHEREAS, the support of our citizens is essential to the efficient operation of public works systems and programs such as the maintenance of roads and bridges, upkeep of public buildings, codes enforcement, sheltering of animals, management of stormwater and land-disturbing activities, and solid waste collection; and

WHEREAS, the safety, well-being and comfort of the citizens of Greenville County greatly depends on these facilities and services; and

WHEREAS, the quality and success of these facilities and services, as well as their planning, design and construction, is dependent upon the efforts of public works professionals; and

WHEREAS, the efficiency of the qualified and dedicated personnel who staff public works departments is materially influenced by their attitude and understanding of the importance of the work they perform.

NOW, THEREFORE, Greenville County Council pays tribute to its public works professionals, engineers, managers and front-line field employees; recognizes the substantial contributions they make to protect the safety, well-being, comfort and quality of life for its citizens; and hereby recognizes the week of May 18 – 24, 2025, as

“National Public Works Week” in Greenville County

Signed this 20th day of May, 2025

Benton Blount, Chairman
Greenville County Council
