Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

As a Commissioner on the Boiling Springs Fire District Board of Fire Control, I understand the role to involve serving on a five member board that oversees the operations of a special purpose district dedicated to providing fire protection services to the community. The primary responsibilities include procuring and maintaining firefighting equipment within the allocated budget, selecting appropriate sites for housing that equipment, hiring and supervising drivers, volunteer firefighters.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the BOILING SPRINGS FIRE DISTRICT:

My Certified Leadership Training expertise would contribute to effective board governance, strategic decision-making, and training oversight, ensuring the district's operations run smoothly and adapt to community needs. I am adept at community involvement and crisis intervention, which aligns with the district's focus on public safety and emergency response. These skills would help in budgeting, policy development, and building collaborative relationships to strengthen BSFD
