My interest in serving on the GREENLINK – TRANSIT AUTHORITY is:

Over the years, I've seen the impact that Greenlink can have on our community through my work at the Taylors Free Medical Clinic, where the bus has provided a critical means of connection for people seeking care they would otherwise not have access to.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

This board, which comprises appointees from the City of Greenville, the legislative delegation, and the County, oversees the governance of the Greenlink bus system and ensures the appropriate use of tax dollars toward the ends set out in the establishing documents and other guiding provisions for Greenlink.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the GREENLINK – TRANSIT AUTHORITY:

I have extensive experience in Nonprofit and government organization governance and good instincts for working with other board members to make the best use of tax dollars for the citizens of Greenville County.

My community topics of concern that relate to the GREENLINK – TRANSIT AUTHORITY are:

Ensuring efficient and economic delivery of transit services that provide appropriate and dependable transportation for visitors and residents.
