My interest in serving on the SOUTH CAROLINA TECHNOLOGY AND AVIATION CENTER BOARD (SCTAC) is:

I have spent a lifetime in the telecommunications field, watching how technology has evolved over the decades, and I do not want to lose touch with that. The company that I currently run, I am involved on a day-to-day basis with various technologies for the bureau of prisons, US Army, army, Corps of Engineers, and various acronyms agencies in the DC Metro area. My company is currently looking at several Air Force modernization projects, and anti-drone systems across the USA.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

My understanding of the position is that we would be running an overseeing SCTAC's operation and development, staff and management hiring, approving and entering contracts, and/or agreements for services, etc., and to report to the public on performance in progress.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the SOUTH CAROLINA TECHNOLOGY AND AVIATION CENTER BOARD (SCTAC):

My strengths for this position would be that I have a critical infrastructure operations mindset as I run mission. Critical infrastructure programs were downtime and safety. Failures are not acceptable, I'm used to working in a highly regulated spaces with compliance, contracting rules, and documentation audits performance accountability in the federal job space, even if my mission isn't directly regarding aviation the standard or similar secure facilities, access access control,

My community topics of concern that relate to the SOUTH CAROLINA TECHNOLOGY AND AVIATION CENTER BOARD (SCTAC) are:

I would think that a lot of these topics of concern that fit naturally from my background to the aviation industrial campus application would be safety and security noise, quality of life and trust, protect protected and secure, infrastructure, economic development that feels real to the residence of the county that includes local jobs and workforce development, as well as government and stewardship, procurement integrity, and accountability, long-term land use planning and community engagement.
