My interest in serving on the GREENVILLE COUNTY HISTORIC AND NATURAL RESOURCES TRUST is:

My family has been in Greenville for generations. We care deeply for the upstate and are concerned about the accelerating loss of natural and open spaces. I believe most residents of Greenville county would cite natural beauty as a top contributor to the uniqueness of our corner of South Carolina. I feel that this trust can have an even more meaningful impact on growing smart while preserving open spaces.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

I understand that this position has the responsibility of analyzing and voting for or against various conservation projects. I understand that I am required to attend meetings and encourages to attend site visits.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the GREENVILLE COUNTY HISTORIC AND NATURAL RESOURCES TRUST:

I have been in and around land conservation for over 30 years and have familiarity with the conservation partners in the upstate. During my 25 years as a financial advisor, I have had the opportunity to consult and advise on multiple conservation transactions, including conservation easements. I feel that I have a deep understanding of the natural world and am in a unique position to understand its critical importance to our community and our economy. Also worked in environmental consulting.

My community topics of concern that relate to the GREENVILLE COUNTY HISTORIC AND NATURAL RESOURCES TRUST are:

The accelerating loss of open and natural spaces in our county.
Stewardship of the resources God has granted and thinking forward to the impact on future generations.
