

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the PLANNING COMMISSION:

I bring over a decade of experience in commercial real estate, advising businesses and property owners across Greenville County. This experience has given me a strong understanding of zoning, site selection, development feasibility, and market dynamics. I am comfortable reviewing plans and evaluating how projects will function in real-world conditions—not just conceptually.

In addition, my background has required me to work with a wide range of stakeholders, including property owners, tenants,

My community topics of concern that relate to the PLANNING COMMISSION are:

I am focused on ensuring that growth in Greenville County is both intentional and sustainable. While I support development that strengthens the tax base and expands opportunity, I believe growth must be carefully managed.

Key areas of concern include:

- Ensuring infrastructure—roads, utilities, and public services—keeps pace with development. I believe this is absolutely critical. Greenville has grown exponentially and continues to, and we need to be long term focused on what our infrastructure
