- On the S10 report, I take it that it's the monthly write down of capital expenditures?
- Second question I got goes into what motor mouth there was saying that left, is why don't we depreciate real estate?
- Third statement, in my opinion, it's more meaningful if we were to include equipment rentals.
 - Whether you own or rent, let me talk please? Whether you rent or whether you buy, you pay for what you use, somewhere on here ought to have, in my opinion, to be a more meaningful document.
 - We should have equipment rentals for the month. We have expenses that should have it on here by the month.

- Both Side Loaders have been delivered and should be route ready by end of week.
- Our second FEMA project has been approved. We expect to receive $356,896 before the end of October. The final project is expected to fund before end of year. The final project is $2,755,899.
- We have quotes for John Deere, Caterpillar, and Gehl wheel loaders. Based on the service and availability of parts, we would like to purchase 2 John Deere Wheel Loaders at a price of $129,805.69. This price includes a multi-purpose bucket.
 - We also need to purchase a spare multi-purpose bucket as we have just enough buckets for the tractors we currently have. Cost of bucket is $11,472.16.
 - Total cost for both Tractors and a spare bucket is $271,083.54. We budgeted $280,000 so we are under budget for this purchase.
- We need a truck for special services. The old F350 that we were using needs a new rear axle that will ultimately cost around $5-6k. Federal

- Ran across an article the other day about prices coming down on truck vehicles.
 - “Steve, are we seeing any indication of that?”

Tony Earnest

- Talked with Kendall the other day, those 2 side loaders will be in workload next week ready to go.
- LT and Corey got all leaf vac equipment ready to go.
- With all the people that are trained, weather being a little warmer, makes leaf collection able to keep up and not fall behind.

William Stewart

- Not Here.

Monique Williams

- Akayla and Carmel, we met on 9/16/2025 to go over some things we did with our newsletter and employees about giving out various gift cards if a newsletter were picked up.
 - If they participated, they got a $10/25 gift card.
- Next time the newsletter comes out there will be questions to answer to get a gift card.
 - Employee morale will be boosted.

Brian Garrison

- Another Safe Month: one of the reasons we keep being so safe is our decision to eliminate/terminate someone when we have to.
 - Take it lightly but it is necessary.
- Congratulations to everyone involved on the clean audit.
