

Special Notice to ALL Voters in Greenville County

Polling place changes to impact more than 100,000 potential voters in upcoming elections.

Polling places normally held in schools are NOT available for a series of upcoming elections. In addition, there are a few polling places that are not available due to construction or other conflicts. Thus, there are 45 temporary polling locations for upcoming special elections and the Democratic Party Presidential Preference Primary.

Elections affected by the temporary polling location change include: January 7 Republican Primary for Greenville County Sheriff ( with potential Republican runoff on January 21), February 29 Democratic Party Presidential Preference Primary, and March 10 Special Election for Greenville County Sheriff.

Below is the list of polling locations for those upcoming special elections and primary with special emphasis made to highlight the temporary sites. Please reach out to friends and neighbors so that everyone wanting to participate will know of these changes.

The polling locations listed below will open at 7 am and close at 7 pm on election days.

Absentee voting for the Republican Primary for Greenville County Sheriff is available Monday-Friday now through January 6 from 8:30 am – 5 pm at Greenville County Square with extended hours from 8:30 am – 7 pm on January 2-3 and from 9 am – 1 pm on Saturday, January 4. (Closed January 1)

Highlighted precinct names indicate a change in location with the substitute location listed.
