

2018 Republican Primary in Greenville County

Federal – U.S. House of Rep
4th District Dan Albert – Rep. Barry Bell – Rep. Lee Bright – Rep. Stephen H Brown – Rep. Mark Burns – Rep. James Epley – Rep. Dan Hamilton – Rep. Josh Kimbrell – Rep. John Marshall Mosser – Rep. Shannon Pierce – Rep. Justin David Sanders – Rep. Claude Schmid – Rep. William Timmons – Rep.
	State House of Rep. - Continued
SC Statewide	House District 20 Bobby Davis – Rep. Adam Morgan – Rep.
Governor Kevin Bryant – Rep. Henry McMaster – Rep. John Yancey McGill – Rep. Catherine Templeton – Rep. John Warren – Rep.	House District 21 Bobby Cox – Rep. Phyllis Henderson – Rep.
Secretary of State Nelson Faerber – Rep. Mark Hammond – Rep. Joshua Putnam – Rep. Kerry Wood – Rep.	House District 22 Brett Brocato – Rep. Jason Elliott – Rep. Samuel Harms – Rep.
Attorney General Todd Atwater – Rep. William D Herlong – Rep. Alan Wilson – Rep.	House District 27 Garry R Smith – Rep. Fred Wall – Rep. Ira Williams – Rep.
State House of Representatives
House District 17 Mike Burns – Rep. Lee B Vining – Rep.
House District 18 Tommy Stringer – Rep. Tony Gilliard – Rep.	Greenville County Council Council District 28 Sylvia Lockaby – Rep. Dan Tripp – Rep.

REPUBLICAN QUESTION 1: Do you believe that voters should have the option to choose to affiliate with a political party when they register to vote or change their voter registration in South Carolina?

REPUBLICAN QUESTION 2: Do you believe that South Carolina's tax code should be brought into conformity with the new Trump tax cuts in the federal tax code for maximum simplification and to lower the overall tax burden on South Carolina taxpayers and businesses?