

REZONING BROCHURE

WWW.GREENVILLECOUNTY.ORG/ZONING
 301 UNIVERSITY RIDGE, SUITE S-3200
 GREENVILLE, SC 29601
 ZONING@GREENVILLECOUNTY.ORG

WHY REZONE?

- To allow for a different use than allowed under the existing zoning designation.
- To allow for more intense development such as a higher density residential district.

WHO MAY REZONE PROPERTY?

- The property owner or an authorized representative such as a real estate agent, engineer, attorney, etc.
- County Council
- Planning Commission

HOW TO FIND THE ZONING OF A SPECIFIC PARCEL

The zoning map is available online at www.gcgis.org. Additionally, Zoning staff can provide a letter stating the zoning designation of a specific parcel with submittal of a zoning verification request form available online (www.greenvillecounty.org/Zoning/Rezoning.aspx). This service carries a charge of $10 per request per parcel.

HOW TO FIND REZONING HISTORY

Conduct a Zoning History search online (www.greenvillecounty.org/Zoning/Rezoning.aspx). Select Zoning, then select Search All Zoning Applications.

HOW TO START

Applications are available from the Planning and Zoning Department or online at www.greenvillecounty.org/Zoning/Rezoning.aspx. Submit the appropriate fee shown below, with the application, to Zoning Staff no later than 12:00 p.m. by the deadline found on the back page of the brochure.

HOW TO FILE A REQUEST

Greenville County Council (Council) hears all requests for rezoning in the unincorporated areas of the county. Applications may be filed by the property owner or authorized representative of the property owner(s) at the Zoning office. If a rezoning request is for a portion of a lot, a boundary survey of the portion to be rezoned must accompany the application. If covenants exist for the property, a copy of the covenants must accompany the application, as well.

THE PUBLIC HEARING PROCESS

The public hearing procedure described on this page begins the process to formally consider the rezoning application. The next page focuses specifically on the Commission and Council actions that follow the public hearing.

HOW TO FILE A REQUEST

REZONING HEARING

COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

467-7425

www.gcrezoning.org

Upon receipt of the application and filing fee, zoning staff will provide the applicant with hearing notice signs, which must be posted on the subject property by the applicant a minimum of 15 days prior to the public hearing. Planning also places a legal ad in the Greenville Journal advertising the request 15 days prior to the public hearing. Public hearings are held monthly, with the exception of December. Relevant dates for rezoning requests this year are on the back of this brochure. Signs are to be returned to the Zoning Department.

SUPPORTING OR OPPOSING A REZONING

Because public comments are subject to a time limitation, it is advisable that large groups choose a spokesperson. The spokesperson may recognize the group in favor/opposition of the request. This process allows those who share the same view to be efficiently recognized by Council. Additionally, petitions and letters to support or oppose a request may be submitted prior to the public hearing. Template petition forms are available online at www.greenvillecounty.org/Zoning/Rezoning.aspx and at the Zoning office. All electronic presentations for a Public Hearing, either by the applicant or the public, are required by 12:00 pm (noon), the day of the Public Hearing.

WHAT HAPPENS AT THE PUBLIC HEARING?

A public hearing is held before Council at County Square (301 University Ridge, Greenville, SC 29601). Persons interested in commenting on a rezoning request should specifically attend the public hearing. The public hearing provides the only opportunity for public comment. The following procedure is customary:

- Zoning staff analyzes the request along with land uses, zoning classification, and zoning history for the site and surrounding areas.
- The applicant and others in support of the request are allowed to present their comments.
- Those in opposition are then allowed to present their comments against the request.
- Council generally does not allow rebuttals or closing remarks.

Following the public hearing, Zoning reports an analysis of the request and recommends an action. This report is first presented at the monthly meeting of the Greenville County Planning Commission. Rezoning reports are then forwarded to the Planning and Development Committee (P&D Committee, a committee of Council), and subsequently to the remainder of Council through the next steps highlighted on the next page.

Planning = Planning and Zoning Department
Council = Greenville County Council
Commission = Greenville County Planning Commission
P&D Committee = Greenville County Planning and Development Committee

ACTIONS BY PLANNING COMMISSION & COUNTY COUNCIL

FIRST READING BY COUNCIL

The First Reading by Council is a designation when the rezoning request is entered into the public record, usually on the Tuesday following the public hearing. The request is formally forwarded to the Commission and subsequently to P&D Committee for their recommendations.

PLANNING COMMISSION

The Commission meets on the fourth Wednesday of each month and votes to recommend approval, denial, or offer an amendment to the request. The Commission recommendation is then forwarded to P&D Committee for further consideration.

PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The P&D Committee meets on the first and third Monday of each month and votes to recommend to approve, deny, or amend the request. The P&D Committee recommendation is then forwarded to Council for a decision.

SECOND AND THIRD READINGS BY COUNCIL

The P&D Committee recommendation is presented at the next Council meeting for Second Reading. A vote is taken by Council to approve, deny, or amend the request at Second Reading. Council by-laws require a favorable simple majority (7 votes) to approve a rezoning request. At least eight votes are required to approve a request following a recommendation of denial from either the Commission or P&D Committee. If the request is denied, Third Reading is not given and the applicant is notified by mail of the denial. If Council votes to approve the request at Second Reading, the request proceeds to the next meeting of Council for Third Reading. Approvals are effective the day following a successful Third Reading.

NOTIFICATION OF COUNCIL DECISION

Zoning staff notifies the applicant of the Council's final decision by mail. Notifications are also sent to the County Clerk, Building Safety/Permits, and Real Property Services.

DENIAL OPTIONS

If a rezoning request is denied, the earliest to reapply for the same property is at least one (1) year from the date of denial of the rezoning by Council. This applies to requests for the same or more intensive zoning classifications. A new request for more restrictive classifications is not subject to the waiting period. Any challenge to an action of Council may be filed in Circuit Court.
