

VOL. 32. TITLE TO REAL ESTATE.

State of South Carolina,
County of Greenville.

Personally appeared before me J.N. Southern, who, being first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows: That he is familiar with the hand writing of J.L. Southern, C.S. Henning and W.A. McDaniel, having often seen them respectively, write their names, as well as divers other matters; That the said J.L. Southern was sheriff of Greenville County on or about the first day of June, 1874; That the said J.L. Southern, C.S. Henning and W.A. McDaniel are all dead; That this deponent has carefully examined the foregoing deed, which purports to have been executed by the said J.L. Southern, as sheriff of Greenville County, and to have been witnessed by the said C.S. Henning and W.A. McDaniel, and this deponent verily believes that all three of said signatures are genuine and were written in the own proper hand writing of the said J.L. Southern, C.S. Henning and W.A. McDaniel, respectively.

Sworn to before me, on this the second day of October A.D. 1914.

J.N. Southern

James R. Bates, (L.S.)

Notary Public for South Carolina.

State of South Carolina,
County of Greenville.

Personally appeared before me D.A. Henning, who, being first duly sworn deposes and says that the within deed is in the genuine handwriting of C.S. Henning, and the signature of the said C.S. Henning as one of the witnesses to said deed, is also genuine that this deponent is thoroughly familiar with the handwriting of the said C.S. Henning, who was this deponents brother, and is now dead.

Sworn to before me, this 7th, day of October A.D. 1914.

D.A. Henning
