LEASE AGREEMENT.

This agreement entered into this October 30th, 1929, between W. K. Hill, herein-after called party of the first part and T. L. Smith, doing business as Smith & James, herein-after called party of the second part in the manner following:

Party of the first part hereby leases unto party of the second part the following described property:

All the first story of the northern half of that two-story, brick building located on the west side of Trade St. at its intersection with Randall St., in the town of Greenville, County of Greenville, and State of South Carolina;

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD unto party of the second part for a period of three years, beginning January 1st, 1930, and ending January 1st, 1933, at a monthly rental of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) payable on the first day of each month, with the option on the part of party of the second part to extend this lease for an additional period of two years at a rental to be determined by taking an average rental of other buildings, with like amount of frontage and depth, in the same block, with the exception of the corner buildings on either side of the said block, and in the determination of the amount of this rental it is agreed by and between the parties hereto that in event of a failure to agree by the parties hereto, the same shall be submitted to B. A. Bennett and E. C. Bailey for arbitration and final determination; and the parties hereto agree to abide their decision,

It is agreed by party of the second part to pay the rental in the manner herein agreed upon, and that he will quit the premises at the expiration of this lease, leaving the same in the same condition as the same now are, reasonable wear, ordinary accident and casualty excepted.

It is agreed by and between the parties hereto that in case the said building shall be so destroyed by fire, or extraordinary accident, or by act of war or of God, a reasonable time will be permitted the party of the first part to replace the same so that it may again be habitable.

It is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that party of the first part shall have the right at all times to enter the premises for the purpose of inspecting the same for needed repairs and such attention as may seem best to protect the property, but in any event not to interfere with the lawful conduct of the business of party of the second part.

It is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that in event of the failure on the part of party of the second part to keep the covenants of this lease according to their true intent and meaning party of the first part may declare this lease terminated and may re-enter and take possession of the premises.

It is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that the above described shall not be re-let or sublet without the written consent of party of the first part.

WITNESS, our hands and seals this October 30th, 1929.
