The State of South Carolina, county of Greenville.
GGGKII GI GKBEKVIEEE.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · _several_years_ago_intestate,_leaving_as_her_heirs_at ,	S. Boswell and one child Clyde Boswell, and, 1_died_August_17, 1940, leaving as his sole heirs at law his three sons: Everett W. Boswell, Now, Therefore.	·
KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That	I, Everett W. Boswell
\
·
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	in the State aforesaid in consideration of the sum of One & no/100 DOLLARS in hand paid, at and before the sealing of these presents by Arthur E. Cox
14
	ve granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and release, unto the said Arthur E. Cox.
: A22 - A
	est_in_and_to_all_that_piece,_parcel_or_lot_of_land_in Soludo Township County State of South Co arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and_being_more_particularly_described_in_d	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded and being more particularly described in one in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is and being more particularly described in o in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descri	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripproximately 21 acres, designated as bott	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripproximately 21 acres, designated as bott	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land.	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land.	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of
and being more particularly described in of in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office hereby craved for a more particular descripapproximately 21 acres, designated as bott convey all interest whatever which I may be consists primarily of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred	arolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, leed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is ption. The grantee herein is already the owner of com land of said above tract, and this deed is given to have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which to was a sister of the grantee herein, and was one of