Start OF SOUTH CANDILLA FORMER CAME KROW ALL MCS BY THINK FRESHIS, Nam. I., FRENDS C. Norwood, KROW ALL MCS BY THINK FRESHIS, Nam. I., FRENDS C. Norwood, Love and Affantion and him aum of Two end angled (62.60). Love and Affantion and him aum of Two end angled (62.60). Date as a best for white of this peace St. Frances N. Sunderburk as Trustee All those the residual this peace St. Frances N. Sunderburk as Trustee All those the residual color and Surmeth Street, Machington Heights, known as lots No. Freithershift (68) and Forthy-calme (19) on plac of weshington Heights subdivision by G. N. Furman, Jr. Freithershift (68) and Forthy-calme (19) on plac of weshington Heights subdivision by G. N. Furman, Jr. Freithershift (68) and Forthy-calme (19) on plac of weshington Heights subdivision by G. N. Furman, Jr. Freithershift (68) and Forthy-calme (19) on plac of weshington Heights subdivision by G. N. Furman, Jr. Freithershift (19) and Forthy-calme (19) on plac of weshington Heights subdivision by G. N. Furman, Jr. Freithershift (19) and Forthy-calme (19) on plac of weshington Heights subdivision by G. N. Furman, Jr. Freithershift (19) and Forthy-calme (19) on plac of the place 25%; the description on therefore, the place 50%, and now fully described in decks of R. Immen, Mester, to me, September 1967, recorded in seld only incorporated by Afforders. From the Furman Affordershift and one care for sees, and to collect all income therefore, the self-income (afforder permanner) of selfs of collection, 1962, former on appropriate the transfer of the care of upwards of the place of the collection of the care of the collection of the care o	VOI. WALKER, EVANS & COSSWELL CO., CHARLESTON, S. C. 18683—7-	-14-41
In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. In or Sus chouse	TITLE TO REAL ESTATE—G.T. 201
In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. Love and Affection and him sum of Two and ne/100 ($2.00) In or Sus choused. In or Sus chouse	CTATE OF SOUTH CAPOLINA	ì in the Sour streams. Lover and Affaction and the aux of Two and no/log ($2.50) Me and bring of several by Frances M. Funderburk as Trustee (the mode showed a body absorbeded) has found, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast, and by thee process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast on the sad process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast on the sad process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast on the sad process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast on the sad process of Cana, Regime, Sad and Releast of Cana, Regime, Sad Andrews, Sad Andre	\
Love and Affection and the sum of Twa and no/100 (32.00) no no no no no no no no no n	T Homele C Norwood
Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be at and before the sum of the present by the sum of the sum	KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That
Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be at and before the sum of the present by the sum of the sum
Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be at and before the sum of the present by the sum of the sum		terminar deri vedi
Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be at and before the sum of the present by the sum of the sum
Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be at and before the sum of the present by the sum of the sum
Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) be at and before the sum of the present by the sum of the sum	in the State afores	hiese
Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00) Desire the most should be street by. Frances M. Punderburk as Trustee (the most should be believe the safety of these frances M. Punderburk as Trustee (the most should be been should be be street by the frances M. Punderburk as Trustee All these two certain lots on Eurnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots Mo. Forty-eight (18) and Forty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. N. Furman, Jr. Party-eight (18) and Forty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. N. Furman, Jr. Paper 51, and more fully described in deeds of H. Incan, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Rocks 159 at page 162 and light at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorposeted by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit:- (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, Lazes, insurence and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George M. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire of the continuous from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George M. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George M. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - he youngest child that shell become twenty-one years of see shell reach that see; the net income to be used for tipe maintenance of his children, the children of say decessed child to share in the parent's ated. At the termination of the trust as showe provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capits, free of all trusts. (3) If George M. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving his, the rist is lowing no per stirpes and not per capits, free of all trusts. (3) If George M. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving his, the rist is all continue in Frances and her heirs for the
(the recept whereof is brethy adamsdedged), here General Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released Nr. Purnderphury Res Trustee All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Procty-eight (1/8) and Porty-nine (1/9) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by G. N. Purnman, Arresponded to the Company of the Research of the Party-nine (1/9) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by G. N. Purnman, Arresponded to the Company of the Regularity Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Policy Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Policy Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the R	Love and Affection and the sum of Two and no/100 ($2.00)	ollars
(the recept whereof is brethy adamsdedged), here General Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released Nr. Purnderphury Res Trustee All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Procty-eight (1/8) and Porty-nine (1/9) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by G. N. Purnman, Arresponded to the Company of the Research of the Party-nine (1/9) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by G. N. Purnman, Arresponded to the Company of the Regularity Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Policy Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Policy Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the R (the recept whereof is brethy adamsdedged), here General Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released, and by these precess the Grant, Regularity Sci and Released Nr. Purnderphury Res Trustee All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Procty-eight (1/8) and Porty-nine (1/9) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by G. N. Purnman, Arresponded to the Company of the Research of the Party-nine (1/9) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by G. N. Purnman, Arresponded to the Company of the Regularity Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Policy Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the Policy Incompany of the Regularity Incompany of the R
the receipt whereof is breaky admonshipted, have Cranted, Rangaled, Sade and Educate, and by these process to Grant, Rangale, Said and Release must do and Prenness N. Punderburk as Trustee All those two certifin lots on Purnett Street, Washington Heights, Known as lots No. Porty-eight (laß) and Porty-nine (lag) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Purnean, Jr Pebrusry 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State afcressaid, in Plat Book "pa" at page 161 and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 130 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN THUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE PCHLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-witt- (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurence and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be jaid to George N. Punderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Punderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that save in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capits, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Punderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust shall not be provided that the remination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capits, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Punderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust is commission to the trust as shown provided, the title, in fee simple, in the prent's stead. (b) And if Prances shall be dead, it is the him the proportion that the shall sea deleter the same of these present by Prances N. Punderburk as Trustee (the modet where is hereby admonstrate), here Gound. Engaged, Sad and Released, and by these present as Gram, Engage, Sad and Release where the Prences N. Punderburk as Trustee All those two certain lots on Eurnett Street, Washington Reights, known as lots No. Forty-eight ([h8]) and Forty-nine ([h9]) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Purwan, Jr Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "3" at page 5th, and more fully described in deeds of E. Innan, Mester, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 130 at page 162 and lho at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incomporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, POR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, incurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, incurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk and the accumulations are to be paid to deerge X. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendents the trust shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the not income to be used for incuminations of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parents's stead. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendents surviving him, the trust shall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendents surviving him, the trust shall reach that are shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee aimple, to vest equally in hid descendents, per stirpes and not per capita. The benefit Trans before the earling of these presents by Prances M. Funderburk as Trustee (the recept whereof a berely administration have Granted Rangaland, Said and Released, and by these present do Grant Rangala, Said and Release who also and Prances M. Punderburk as Trustee All those two certifies lots on Purmett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Porty-eight (igh) and Porty-nine (igh) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Purman, Jr Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" at Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" at Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" at Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" at Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" as Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" as Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" as Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" as Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" as Pebruary 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in plat Book "g" as IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND FURFOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and cere for same, and to collect all income therefore, the net income (after peyment of costs of collection, Laxes, insurance and cost of upkers) to be reinvested until George N. Punderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original brust and the accountable as the bear in the parent's about the shall continue (in Prances Funderburk about die leaving one or more descendents the trust to have the terrination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to we ar		**************************************
(the recept whereof is been's adacewheled), here Granded Emergiand, Said and Bedaned and by these present the Grant Emergian, Sail and Redene now the and Prances N. Funderburk as Trustee All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-sight (18) and Porty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Purmen, Jr. Fabrurary J. 1962, recorded in office of R. M. C., Country and State aforessid, in Plat Book "F" at page 51, and more fully described in deeds of E. Imman, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND FURFOCES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeen) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk and help heirs) until - and only until - his vouncest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the permiss stead. (3) If George N. Funderburk and help heirs) until - and only until - his vouncest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the permiss stead. (3) If George N. Funderburk and help heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her vouncest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple, to yest equally in the descendents of Franc	toin hand	paid
Prences N. Funderburk as Trustee (the recipt whereal is herely admonished), have Granced, Required, Said and Released, and by these presents to Grant, Surgial, Said and Release unto the said Prences N. Funderburk as Trustee All those two certain lots on Surnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-eight (148) and Forty-nime (149) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. N. Furman, Jr. February 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "g" at page 519, and more fully described in deeds of E. Inman, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUES, HOWEVER, 705 THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit:- (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested intimices N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George K. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child, that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust is not not need to prence and not per capita, free of all trusts. (5) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years	•
(the recipt whereof is hereby acknowledged), here Grazerd, Bargated, Sold and Released, and by these presents to Grant Bargain, Sold and Release made he and Prenneces N. Funderburk as Trustee All those two certain lots on Eurment Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-eight (h6) and Forty-nine (h9) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furmmen, Ar Pebruary 2, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plet Book "F" at page 5h, and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and hh0 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PERFOSES, to-wit:- (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinveste until George N. Punderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire not income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his voumgest child that shell become twenty-one years of are shell reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Punderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the tru shell continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, fe any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until bay youngest child that shell reach that are shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to t
Prences N. Punderburk as Trustes All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-eight (16) and Porty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furman, Tr Pabruary 5, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "p" at page 51, and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Mester, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PERFOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkesp) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the tru- sis ll continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (1) and if Frances Rorweod, John	Frances N. Fundaroux as 11 as occ
Prences N. Punderburk as Trustes All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-eight (16) and Porty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furman, Tr Pabruary 5, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "p" at page 51, and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Mester, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PERFOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkesp) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the tru- sis ll continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (1) and if Frances Rorweod, John		*******
Prences N. Punderburk as Trustes All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-eight (16) and Porty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furman, Tr Pabruary 5, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "p" at page 51, and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Mester, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PERFOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkesp) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the tru- sis ll continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (1) and if Frances Rorweod, John
All those two certain lots on Eurnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-eight (18) and Forty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furman, N. Pebrusry 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "p" at page 5h, and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's steed. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust all continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shell reach that age shell become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shell deleaving no living descendants then title shell vest in fee		said
All those two certain lots on Eurnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots No. Forty-eight (18) and Forty-nine (19) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furman, N. Pebrusry 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "p" at page 5h, and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 110 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's steed. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust all continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shell reach that age shell become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shell deleaving no living descendants then title shell vest in fee	Frances N. Funderburk as Trustee
Forty-eight (48) and Forty-nine (49) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furman, in February 3, 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "P" at page 51, and more fully described in deeds of E. Immen, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 140 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOILCWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit:— (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of unkeep) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Punderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shell reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust is lat continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to yeat equally in the descendants of Frances, shall die leaving no leacendants than title shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to yeat equally in the descendants of Frances, shall die leaving no living descen	All those two certain lots on Burnett Street, Washington Heights, known as lots N	10.
rebruery 5, 1922, recorded in office of R. N. C., County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "F" at page 51, and more fully described in deeds of E. Inman, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 132 at page 162 and 140 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after peyment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his voungest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shell reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in hid descendants, per stirpes and not per capits, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust all continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shell reach that age shell become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shell reach that age shell become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shell reach that age shell become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendents of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capits: (h) And if Frances shell die leaving no living	Forty-eight (18) and Forty-nine (49) on plat of Washington Heights subdivision by C. M. Furma	in, Jr page 51, and more fully described in deeds of E. Inman, Master, to me, September 1927, recorded in said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 140 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incomporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND FURPCES, to-wit:- (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his voungest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in hid descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust is all continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benfemin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trustas; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then enswer the description "his heris", if he had just died, -	Webmany 3 1922, recorded in office of R. M. C County and State aforesaid, in Plat Book "	'F" at said office in Deed Books 139 at page 162 and 140 at page 252, the descriptions there found being here fully incorporated by reference. IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Prances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustal continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (b) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in deorge Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then enswer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions than fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Caroll	representatively, 1922; Todardad In deeds of E. Inman. Master. to me. September 1927, record	ded in
IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, to-wit: (1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkesp) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Punderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustal continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, acually, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin X. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein sha	page 54, and more fully described in decids of H. Inhan, hard see 252, the descriptions there found b	peing
(1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the net income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinveste until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Punderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shell continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shell become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trusts lated to the process and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Prances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, causelly, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Caroline. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as the may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the appli
(1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the met income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire not income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustal continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when auch youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportion then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the trust funds in other u	here fully incorporated by reference.
income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be reinvested until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then enswer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportion than fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Bistributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other un	IN TRUST, HOWEVER, FOR THE FOLLOWING USES AND PURPOSES, CO-WIC:	net until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net income from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any decessed child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the shere of any such decessed person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportion then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of Scuth Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale or resale shall promptly reinvest the trus	(1) To rent, manage and care for same, and to collect all income therefrom, the	ne c from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long as he lives. (2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust language in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, squally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then enswer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiery beyond the requirements of	income (after payment of costs of collection, taxes, insurance and cost of upkeep) to be rein	iveste
(2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustal continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Pr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as the may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sele to ore	until George N. Funderburk becomes twenty-one years of age; after that time the entire net in	ne ome
(2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of are shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamh K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or res	from the original trust and the accumulations are to be paid to George N. Funderburk as long	as ne
shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest child that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Clive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exer	lives.
that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (4) And if Francas shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiery beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the e	(2) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving one or more descendants the trust	t
that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for the maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (4) And if Francas shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiery beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the e	shall continue (in Frances Funderburk and her heirs) until - and only until - his youngest ch	nild maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's stead. At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3). If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust all continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall read that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	that shall become twenty-one years of age shall reach that age; the net income to be used for	r the
At the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally in his descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trust all continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	maintenance of his children, the children of any deceased child to share in the parent's steam	ad.
descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, free of all trusts. (3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (4) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	the termination of the trust as above provided, the title, in fee simple, to vest equally	in hi
(3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants surviving him, the trustall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of
shall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child or children of Frances, if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Clive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	descendants, per stirpes and not per capita, iftee of all blasses,	he tru
if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	(3) If George N. Funderburk should die leaving no descendants but viving many of	ances that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child that shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (/i) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwoof free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	shall continue in Frances and her heirs for the benefit of the other child of children of the	1 2000
shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to vest equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the applica- tion of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	if any, - the net income, in that event, to be reinvested until her youngest child that shall	T Leac equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	that age shall become twenty-one years old; the trust to terminate, when such youngest child	that
equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita; (h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	shall reach that age shall become twenty-one years of age, and the title in fee simple to ve-	st
(h) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall vest in fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	equally in the descendants of Frances, then living, per stirpes and not per capita;
fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive Norwood free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	(//) And if Frances shall die leaving no living descendants then title shall ves	t_in_ free of all trusts; but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall go to those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	fee simple, equally, in George Norwood, John W. Norwood, Jr., Benjamin K. Norwood and Olive	Norwoo those who would then answer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the proportions then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	free of all trusts: but if any of them be dead, the share of any such deceased person shall	go to then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Distributions of the State of South Carolina. The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	these who would then enswer the description "his heirs", if he had just died, - in the propo	rtions
The Trustee herein shall have full power to sell, and resell, the property as often as she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	those who would then answer the description has been been been been been been the State of South Carolina. she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said Trustee's discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	then fixed for "heirs" under the Statute of Sistroutions of the property as of	ten as discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in other unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	The Trustee herein shall have full power to sett, and resett, one proporty as of	8 unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements of ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	she may deem advisable, and make good and sufficient deed or deeds therefor in said frustee.	+ ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon sale or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	discretion at any time, and upon each such sale shall promptly reinvest the trust funds in o	rougi.—
or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	unencumbered real estate without accountability to any beneficiary beyond the requirements o	-
or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the application of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	ordinary prudence, and the said Trustee has full power to make fee simple deed or deeds upon	sale
tion of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercise of	or resale, and no purchaser at such sale or resale shall be in any way responsible for the a	pplic discretion such Trustee shall leave the property uninsured, or if it be insured below its value.	tion of the proceeds. The trustee shall not be accountable for fire loss, if in the exercis	e of discretion such Trustee shall leave the property uninsured, or if it be insured below its va	lue.
		, , , , , , , , ,
$oldsymbol{\cdot}$		