In Pulaski Chancery Court  TERM. 19 4  Solvelyn Smith  Va. No 81854  Garold C. Smith  Defend  Detree  On this day comes the plaintiff, a white person, by Verne McMillen, he solicitor and the defendant comes not  And-it-appearing-that-due-service-of-process-by-summons-against-said defendant-for the-time-end-in-names-prescribed-by-law-issued-on-the-complaint-herein, has-been made in-this cauth; and this action have complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and wniver of time for mawer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premience fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith  arold C. Smith  be, and the same is hereby awarded as follows: To the plaintiff,  the three custody-of-the-infant-child whose custody-is-involved-in-this-action, to-with  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restored.	CREENVILLE CO. S. C.	·			VUL 326 PAG
Cotober the 27th day of October 194 (conday the 27th day of October 194 (conday the 27th day of October 195 (conday the 27th day of October 195 (conday Smith 195 (conday to 195 (conday the Cotober 195 (conday to 195 (conday the Cotober 195 (conda	CREENT B 35 AN IGAI	Pulaski	Chancery	Court
And it appearing that due-service of process-by-summons-against-said defendant for the time and the same is hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint or the rehereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to change the same is hereby and disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	- L 141.		J
Decrete  On this day comes the plaintiff, a white person, by Verne McMillen, he solicitor and the defendant comes not.  And it appearing that due-service of process by summons against said defendant for the time and in-meaner prescribed by law, issued on the complaint herein, has been made in this cause; and this action have cen reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment up he complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and walver of time for inswer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint yelyn Smith  arold C. Smith  be, and the same and the defendant where custody is involved in this action, to with  That the custody of the infant child whose custody is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chance the during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restored.
Defend  On this day comes the plaintiff, a white person, by Verne McMillen, he solicitor and the defendant comes not.  And it appearing that due service of process by summons against said defendant, for the time and inhanner proscribed by law, issued on the complaint heroin, has been made in this caude; and this action have en reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment up the complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for mawer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith  arold C. Smith  and the defendant on the court of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chan the the same is hereby awarded as follows: To the plaintiff,  That the custody of the infant child whose custody is involved in this action, to with the custody of said child  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restored.	Monday	the _	27 thday o	fOctober	, 19 47
Detree  On this day comes the plaintiff, a white person, by Verne McMillen, he solicitor, and the defendant comes not.  And it eppearing that due service of process by summons against said defendant, for the time and incommentary proscribed by law, issued on the complaint herein, has been made in this caude; and this action have con reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment up the complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for inswer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith and the defendant arold C. Smith be, and the same arold C. Smith the custody of the infent child whose custody is involved in this action, to with the three custody of the infent child whose custody is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to change custody of said child  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restored.	Evelyn Smith				Plaintiff
On this day comes the plaintiff, a white person, by Verne McMillen, he solicitor and the defendant comes not.  And it appearing that due service of process by summons against said defendant, for the time and in- manner prescribed by law, issued on the complaint herein, has been made in this cause; and this action have can reached upon the cell of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment up the complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for unswer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint wellyn Smith and the defendance hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of the infant shild whose custody is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chance custody of said shild.  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restored.	vs. No81854_	~~~~
On this day comes the plaintiff, awhite	Harold C. Smith				Defendant
And it appearing that due service of process by summons against said defendant, for the time and interest appearing that due service of process by summons against said defendant, for the time and interest appearing that the complaint herein, has been made in this cause; and this action have seen reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment upon the complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for answer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith and the defendance of the court of the same and the same around C. Smith be, and the same hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of the infant child whose custody is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chance the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chance the court of some other court or judge vested with competent purisdiction to chance the court of some other court of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restored.		D	erree
And it appearing that due service of process by summons against said defendant, for the time and interest appearing that due service of process by summons against said defendant, for the time and interest appearing that the complaint herein, has been made in this cause; and this action have seen reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment upon the complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for answer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith and the defendance of the court of the same and the same around C. Smith be, and the same hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of the infant child whose custody is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chance the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chance the court of some other court or judge vested with competent purisdiction to chance the court of some other court of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restored.	On this day comes the plaintiff, a	white,	perso	n, by Verne McMi	llen, her
And it-eppearing-that-due-service-of-process-by-summons-against-said defendant, for the time-and-in- member prescribed by law, issued-on-the complaint-herein, has been made in this cause; and this action have een reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment up he complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for mswer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premi eing fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith and the defenda arold C. Smith be, and the sa re hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of the infant child whose custody is involved in this action, to with  e, and the same is hereby awarded as follows: To the plaintiff,  attil the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chan be custody of said child  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	•	•
anner prescribed by law, issued on the complaint herein, has been made in this cause; and this action have een reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment up the complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for inswer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint wellyn Smith and the defenda arold C. Smith be, and the same hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of the infant child whose sustody is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chan be custody of said child.  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	•		solicitor ,	and the defendant con	ies not.
anner prescribed by law, issued on the complaint herein, has been made in this cause; and this action have een reached upon the call of the calendar is submitted to the court for its consideration and judgment up the complaint, defendant's entry of appearance and waiver of time for inswer, the testimony of plaintiff and Mary Ettingoff taken ore enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premising fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint wellyn Smith and the defenda arold C. Smith be, and the same hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of the infant child whose sustody is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chan be custody of said child.  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained for through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor		•
enus at the bar of the court.  The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premieing fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith  and the defends arold C. Smith  be, and the same hereby annulled, set aside and shall be forever held for naught.  That the custody of the infant child  whose sustedy is involved in this action, to with the custody of the infant child whose sustedy is involved in this action, to with the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to change custody of said child  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained from through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	manner prescribed by law, issued on been reached upon the call of the ca	-the-complaint - ilendar is subm	herein, has been m itted to the court f	a de in this eause ; and t or its consideration an	his action having d judgment upon
The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premi eing fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith
The court, being well and sufficiently advised as to all matters of fact and law arising herein and the premieing fully seen, doth order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the plaint velyn Smith			·	0
That the custody of the infant child whose custody is involved in this action, to wit:                  	Evelyn Smith			a	nd the defendant,
That the custody of the infant child whose custody is involved in this action, to wit:  **  **  **  **  **  **  **  **  **
e, and the same is hereby awarded as follows: To the plaintiff,  ntil the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chan be custody of said child  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained from through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor					_
ntil the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chan be custedy of said child  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained from through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	that the custody of the them one	u	4 Anstod y 18-1UAOIA6G	in this action, to wit:
ntil the further order of this court, or of some other court or judge vested with competent jurisdiction to chan be custedy of said child  That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained from through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor				لېدان د مېدرون د په او
That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained from through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	be, and the same is hereby awarded a	as follows: To	the plaintiff,	- -
That all property not disposed of at the commencement of this action which either party hereto obtained from through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	-	مسترسمسدد مددر
through the other during the marriage hereby annulled, and in consideration or by reason thereof, be restor	until the further order of this court, or	of some other c	ourt or judge veste	d with competent jurise	diction to change
	That all property not disposed of at r through the other during the marris o them respectively.	t the commencer	ment of this action vulled, and in conside	which either party here eration or by reason the	to obtained from reof, be restored
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
The second secon		مبسر
That the cost of this action shall be paid by the plaintiff for which execution may	The Alexander of Alexander of Alexander property herein referred to.