

of the Probate Judge for Greenville County in Apartment 523, File 11, wherein he appointed The First National Bank of Greenville as Executor and Trustee and named as the principal beneficiaries of his estate his wife, Frances Cauble Floyd, and his children William Ancrum Floyd, Jr. and Frances Lee Floyd; Frances Cauble Floyd died June 24, 1947, leaving a Will dated January 20, 1947, which is on file in the Office of the Probate Judge for Greenville County in Apartment 531, File 6, wherein she appointed The First National Bank of Greenville as Executor and Trustee and named as the principal beneficiaries of her estate her children William A. Floyd, Jr. and Frances Lee Floyd; the grantor herein is the successor executor and trustee under said Wills by virtue of its consolidation with The First National Bank of Greenville.

The grantee herein is the same person as the William Ancrum Floyd, Jr. or William A. Floyd, Jr. named in the aforementioned Wills of his parents, and having reached the age of thirty years, distribution of his share of the assets of the estate of William Ancrum Floyd is being made to him by the grantor herein in accordance with the provisions of said Wills.

And the said granting corporation does hereby bind itself and its successors to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the grantee hereinabove named, his heirs and assigns, against itself and its successors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said granting corporation has caused its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and these presents to be subscribed by its duly authorized officers, on this the 7th day of ~~May~~ ^{JULY} in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine

(Continued on Next Page)