Corporation or to enhance the value of its properties; and in general to do any and all things and exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges which a corporation may now or hereafter be organized to do or to exercise under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or under any act amendatory thereof, supplemental thereto or substituted therefor.

The foregoing provisions of this Article THIRD shall be construed both as purposes and powers and each as an independent purpose and power. The foregoing enumeration of specific purposes and powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the purposes and powers of the Corporation, and the purposes and powers herein specified, shall except when otherwise provided in this Article THIRD, be in no wise limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any provision of this or any other Article of this Certificate of Incorporation; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as authorising the Corporation to issue bills, notes or other evidences of debt for circulation as money, or to carry on the business of receiving deposits of money or the business of buying gold or silver bullion or foreign coins or as authorising the Corporation to engage in the business of banking or insurance or to carry on the business of constructing, maintaining or operating public utilities in the State of Delaware; and provided, further, that the Corporation shall not carry on any business or exercise any power in any state, territory or country which under the laws thereof the Corporation may not lawfully carry on or exercise.

Fourth: The total number of shares of stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue is twenty thousand shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars per share, which shares shall all be of the same class.

The corporation will commence business with a capital of $1,600,000.

Fifth: The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

Sixth: The private property of the stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts, to any extent whatever.
