Second:—That in the event of (a) default for thirty (30) days in the payment of any one or more of the notes above described, or of any default under said first mortgage, when the same shall have become due and payable (or of any renewal notes, if any renewal notes be executed and accepted in lieu of any original notes); or (b) default in the performance of any one or more of the covenants and agreements of the Mortgagor herein contained, or contained in said first mortgage; or (c) the Mortgagor being adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; or (d) the passage of laws which, ior the decision by any Court of Record of the State of South Carolina that the present laws authorize the taxation by the State of South Carolina or any governmental subdivision of the State, of the notes in the hands of a non-resident holder, or of the estate of the Mortgagee in the real estate hereby conveyed, or of this Mortgage, against the Mortgagee; or (e) the passage of laws, or the decision by any Court of Record of the State of South Carolina rendering or declaring any of the covenants and agreements in the notes or in this Mortgage, or any covenants and agreements substantially similar thereto to be void, voidable or inoperative; or (f) the conveying of said real estate without the consent in writing of the Mortgagee: Then the Mortgagor hereby grants to the Mortgagee the right and privilege to declare the whole debt hereby secured immediately due and payable and collectible under Then the Mortgager hereby grants to the Mortgagee the right and privilege to declare the whole debt hereby secured immediately due and payable and collectible under this Mortgage, and upon such declaration then the notes representing the principal debt and accrued interest thereon shall at once become due and payable, anything herein or therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, for time is of the very essence of this contract. Such declaration shall be mailed by postpaid first-class but unregistered mail to the last address of the Mortgager furnished to the Mortgagee, and shall be effective when so mailed, whether or not it shall be received, and any notice in respect to any matter arising under this instrument shall be deemed sufficiently given if it shall have been so mailed. And the failure to exercise this right on any one or more occasions when it shall have accrued, shall not be construed as a waiver of any future rights to make such declaration when the right shall have again accrued to the Mortgagee. And the Mortgager hereby waives the benefit of his homestead exemption as to the debt hereby secured and interest thereon and all sums expended by the Mortgagee in pursuance with this Mortgage. And should the within described real estate be sold for the satisfaction or discharge of the debt hereby secured or any part thereof and the proceeds of said sale should prove insufficient to satisfy the same with all costs and expenses, the obligation to pay the amount remaining unpaid shall not be extinguished by the Mortgagee becoming the purchaser of the premises.
