AFFIDAVIT

Personally appeared before me Emily C. Wilbanks, who first being duly sworn, deposes and says: That she is the widow of J. H. Wilbanks who died intestate several years ago, leaving as his sole heirs-at-law his widow, Emily C. Wilbanks, and three daughters, as follows: Adele W. Thomason, Truey L. Edens, and Evelyn W. Allison; that said J. H. Wilbanks was the owner of a certain note and mortgage in the sum of One Hundred and No/100 ($100.00) Dollars executed by Luther A. Bragg and Nellie Bragg on June 2nd, 1934 covering 58.80 acres of land in Grove Township, State and County aforesaid; that said note and mortgage were paid in full before the death of said J. H. Wilbanks, for which he signed receipt; that said note and mortgage have either been lost or destroyed and, after diligent search, cannot be found; that the attached receipt of payment in full was signed by my husband, J. H. Wilbanks, and said mortgage should be canceled on the records of the R. M. C. Office for Greenville County.

Sworn to before me this the 12th day of June, 1944.
