To All Whom These Presents May Concern: 1, John T. Johnson, SEND GREETING Whereas, I the said John T. Johnson in and by my certain Promissory note in writing, of even date with these presents, am well and truly indebted to W. E. Hankins in the full and just sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars, ($3,500.00), to be paid in equal annual installments of Five Hundred Dollars, ($500.00), to be paid in equal annual installments of Five Hundred Dollars, ($500.00), the first payment to be made on October 1, 1959, with interest thereon from date at the rate of Six per cent, per annum, to be computed and paid annually in advance until paid in full; all interest not paid when due to bear interest at the same rate as principal; and if any portion of principal or interest be at any time past due and unpaid, then the whole amount evidenced by said note to become immediately due, at the option of the holder hereof, who may sue thereon and foreclose this mortgage; said note further providing for an attorney's fee of ten per cent besides all costs and expense of collection, to be added to the amount due on the said note and to be collectible as a part thereof; if the same be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or if said debt, or any part thereof, be collected by an attorney, or by legal proceedings of my kind (all of which is secured under this mortgage); as in and by the said note, reference being thereunto had, will more fully appear.
