

together with all rights, interests, easements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, the rents, issues, and profits thereof and revenues and income therefrom; all improvements and personal property now or later attached thereto or reasonably necessary to the use thereof, including, but not limited to, ranges, refrigerators, or carplings purchased or financed in whole or in part with Government funds, all water, water rights, and water stock pertaining thereto, and all payments at any time made to Borrower by reason of such rights, transfer, conveyance, or condemnation of any part thereof or interest therein—all of which are herein called "the property".

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the property unto the Government and its assigns forever.

BORROWER for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns WARRANTS THE TITLE OF THE PROPERTY TO THE GOVERNMENT against all lawful claims and demands whatsoever except any liens, encumbrances, mortgages, reservations, prescriptive specified hereinabove, and COVENANTS AND AGREED as follows:

(1) To pay promptly when due any indebtedness to the Government thereby created and to indemnify and save harmless the Government against any loss under its insurance of payment of the note by reason of any default by Borrower. At all times when the note is held by an insured lender, Borrower shall continue to make payments on the note to the Government, a collection agent of the insured lender.

(2) To pay the Government such fees and other charges as may now or hereafter be required by regulation of the Finance Department.

(3) At all times when the note is held by an insured lender, any amount due and unpaid under the terms of the note, together with the amount of any annual charge, may be paid by the Government to the holder of the note or otherwise to the insured lender or to the account of Borrower. Any amount due and unpaid under the terms of the note, whether it is held by the Government or by an insured lender, may be credited by the Government on the note, and thereupon shall constitute a renewal of the note for the amount of the principal and any advance by the Government as described in this paragraph shall bear interest at the rate minimum on the date on which the original of the advance was due to the date of payment to the Government.
