Section 7.3. Recovery of Judgment. (a) In case an Event of Default described in clause (a) of Section 7.1 shall have happened and be continuing, then, upon written demand of the Trustees, the Company will pay to the Trustee for the benefit of the registered owners of the Notes then outstanding the whole amount which then shall have become due and payable on all such Notes then outstanding, for principal, premium and/or interest, as the case may be, and the sums required to be paid by the Company pursuant to any provision of this Indenture, and in addition thereto such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the cost and expenses of collection, including reasonable compensation to the Trustees, their agents and counsel, and any expenses or liabilities incurred by the Trustees hereunder. In case the Company shall fail forthwith to pay such amounts upon such demand, the Trustees in their own names and as trustees of an express trust, shall be entitled and empowered to institute such action or proceedings at law or in equity as may be advised by their counsel for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid, and may prosecute any such action or proceedings to judgment or final decree, and may enforce any such judgment or final decree against the Company and collect moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable out of the property of the Company wherever situated, as well as out of the Trust Estate, in any manner provided by law.

(b) The Trustees shall be entitled to recover judgment as aforesaid either before or after or during the pendency of any proceedings for the enforcement of the lien of this Indenture; and the right of the Trustees to recover such judgment shall not be affected by any entry or sale hereunder, or
