

ARTICLE IVGENERAL COVENANTS

SECTION 401. Condition of County's Obligation; Payment of Principal and Interest. Each and every covenant herein made, including all covenants made by the various sections of this Article IV, is predicated upon the condition that any obligation for the payment of money incurred by the County shall not create a pecuniary liability of the County or a charge upon its general credit or against its taxing powers, but shall be payable solely from the Lease Rentals, which are required to be set apart and transferred to the Bond Fund, and which Lease Rentals are hereby specifically pledged to the payment thereof in the manner and to the extent in this Indenture specified and nothing in the Bonds or coupons or in this Indenture shall be considered as pledging any other funds or assets of the County.

The County covenants that it will promptly pay (but solely from, and only to the extent of, the Lease Rentals), the principal of, including any applicable redemption premiums, and interest on every Bond issued under this Indenture at the place, on the dates and in the manner provided herein and in said Bonds, and in the coupons appertaining thereto according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

SECTION 402. Performance of Covenants; Authority of County. The County covenants that it will faithfully perform at all times any and all covenants, undertakings, stipulations and provisions contained in this Indenture, in any and every Bond executed, authenticated and delivered hereunder and in all proceedings pertaining thereto. The County covenants
