 - That the Mortgagor hereby assigns to the Mortgagor, its successors and assigns, all the rents, issues, and profits accruing from the mortgaged premises, retaining the right to collect the same so long as the debt hereby secured is not in arrears of payment, but should any part of the principal indebtedness, or interest, taxes, or the insurance premiums be past due and unpaid, the Mortgagor may without notice or further proceedings take over the mortgaged premises, if they shall be so paid by a tenant or tenants, or collect said rents and profits and apply the same to the indebtedness hereby secured, without liability to account for anything more than the rents and profits actually collected, less the cost of collection, and no account is authorized, except by Mortgagor, to make all rental payments direct to the Mortgagor, without liability to the Mortgagor, until notified to the contrary by the Mortgagor, and should said premises at the time of such default be occupied by the Mortgagor, the Mortgagor may apply to the Judge of the County Court or to any Judge of the Court of Common Pleas who shall be resident or presiding in the county aforesaid for the appointment of a receiver with authority to take possession of said premises and collect said rents and profits, applying said rents, after paying the cost of collection, to the mortgage debt without liability to exceed the amount, or less than the rents and profits actually collected.
