

卷之三

(9) To maintain improvements in a good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a good and husband-like manner, comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe, and not to stand on the property, or cause or permit waste, deterioration or impairment of the security covered hereby, or without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other materials except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.

(d) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the operation

(11) To pay or reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary or incidental to the protection of the bond and property hereof and to the enforcement of or the compliance with the provisions hereof and of the bond and any supplementary agreement whether before or after default, including but not limited to cost of evidence of title to any security or the property devised reciting this and other instruments, attorneys' fees, trustees' fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and recovering the property.

(2) Neither the property nor any part or interest therein shall be leased, assigned, sold, transferred, or encumbered, voluntarily or otherwise, without the written consent of the Government. The Government shall have the sole and exclusive rights as to the use hereunder, including but not limited to the power to grant options, partial releases, sub-leases, and assignments, and no lessee holder shall have any right, title or interest in or to the land or any benefits thereon.

(13) At all reasonable times the Government and its agents may inspect the property to ascertain whether the covenants and agreements contained herein or in any supplementary agreement are being performed.

(44) The Government may extend and defer the maturity of any general and certain debts the debt evidenced by the note or any indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, release it or liability to the Government and partly or fully release portions of the property from and extinguish the benefit of, and waive any other rights hereunder, without affecting the benefit previously accrued or the liability of the Government of Brazil over to any other party for payment of the note or indebtedness so released hereby except as specified by the Government in writing.

(15) If at any time it shall appear to the Government that Borrower may be able to obtain loans from a production credit association, a Federal land bank, or other responsible cooperative or private credit source, at reasonable rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and periods of time, Borrower will upon the Government's request, apply for and accept such loan in sufficient amount to pay the note and any indebtedness secured thereby and to pay for any stock necessary to be purchased in a cooperative lending agency in connection with such loan.

(iii) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate or under any note, and prospectus or other security instrument held or issued by the corporation and executed in accordance by Bank, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.

(17) SHOULD DEFAULT occur in the performance of discharge of any obligation in this instrument or secured by this instrument, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower die, be declared incompetent, bankrupt, or an insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government of the Union, without written notice, may (a) declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, (b) sue the account of Borrower incur and pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, set upon application by it and production of this instrument without notice or hearing, or said application have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, (c) realize this instrument as provided herein by law, and in all the arts and all other rights and remedies provided herein or by process of future law.

118. The proceeds of 1 credit-sale shall be applied in the following order to the payment of all costs and expenses incident to collecting or recovering the proceeds thereof, the amount being required to law or a competent court to be so paid, (c) the debt evidenced by the note and all indebtedness to the Co. accumulated heretofore, (d) such other debts as required by law or a competent court to be so paid, (e) at the Co.'s discretion, up to 10% of the indebtedness, if it so desires, which is applied to the Co.'s account, and (f) any balance due hereunder. At Co's discretion, if otherwise, 10% shall be paid to the party, the Government and its agents, who bid and purchase as a winner and may pay the Co. attorney's fees of the proceedings, jointly and severally, before the time when to be construed in the Co.'s account in the order specified above.

(19) It is never species that the Government will not be bound by any provision in future State laws, as providing for valuation, appraisal, or taxation or exemption of the property at a point of time, or maintenance of an account, or a different requirement or limitation the amount thereof in the time before which such action may be brought, or any other time, shall not affect the rights of the Government to demand, claim and exercise redemption or possession, full or partial, or total, or partial, or resuming the conditions under which the Government may be compelled to give up its regulation, employmen, including the interests of the holder, or a condition of age, and a transfer of the property to another. But it will especially preserve the benefit of any such State law. But it will bind, in all cases, leases, and contracts of service, and all other agreements between the parties, and currency.

§ 101. If any part of the land for which this instrument is given shall be used to finance the purchase, construction or repair of property to be used as an unoccupied dwelling thereon, the Seller, and if the owner intends to sell or rent the dwelling and has obtained the Contractor's consent to do so, the member Board may not approve, but if he fails to do him, will, after receipt of a bona fide offer, refuse to participate in the sale or rental of the dwelling, will not accept any assignable interest, the dwelling to whom he because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, and/or other factors, is illegal and hereby disclaims and waives any right of attempt to enforce any restrictive covenants on dwelling holding to race, color, religion, sex, national origin.

(21) The instrument shall be subject to the present regulations of the Planners of the Administration, and to its future regulations not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof.
